Wednesday's Daily.
The Contention will pass through town this morning had a very cheering effect. Buckle and Ochoa's teams passed with 10,000 pounds for that mill, consisting of boilers, pans, smoke-stack, etc.
The boilers were the largest we have seen in the Territory, and every piece of machinery had a most substantial appearance.

M. L. POWERS, formerly Superintendent of the Silver King South, arrived from Pinal County by coach to day. He will remain in Tucson a day or two, and expects to visit Tombstone and perhaps other districts.

THE coach to day brought in Mr. J. M.
Barley, of the Signal Corps, who goes to take charge of the telegraph office at Camp Bowie. Mr. Barley is recently from Philadelphia.

THE case of the Territory vs. S. W. Carpenter was submitted to the jury yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, and in less than fifteen minutes the jury returned with a verdict "not guilty."

MR. ESTEVEN OCHOA has just returned from a trip to Tombstone, Camp Bowie and vicinity, and found the sections quiet and progressive.

Thursday's Daily.
A Model Reception.
He came home last night about half past twelve o'clock. She had waited patiently for him until twelve, but the last half hour was too much and completely broke her down. Not physically, oh no, not very much — she rolled up her sleeves, put her hands in her boots, tied her back hair in a sailor's knot and "heeled" her self. She was standing behind the door with a dark lantern in one hand and a four-foot mesquite club in the other. She looked a perfect Goddess of Liberty. Her north eye flashed the fire of a constellation of Jupiters and her cheeks glowed with a deeper hue than two crimson mornings. He opened the door cautiously, lest he might disturb the sweet slumbers of his heart's idol. This action was promptly met by his great consideration for her whom he loved. He entered the hall and stood wrapt in meditation, still grasping the handle of the big front door. The scene suddenly changed, a bright light burst upon him which he at first mistook for the rising sun of millennium's welcome day. But the lantern had scarcely flashed when an affectionate caress from the mesquite club made him think that he had set as quick as it rose, for he was only darkness and perhaps a few stars, as his bones rattled under the dark floor the echo seemed music to her ears, and she left him avenged, extinguished the dark lantern, leaped the club up in a corner and retired — pants, by its sailor's knot and all. Finally he revived and wondered where he was and how he got there. First, he thought probably he had met Victoria's band of renegade Apaches, he next imagined he was Kearney and was attempting to burn Grant in his office, he finally concluded he had been appointed British Minister at Kabul, and had better go right home, so he crawled behind the slate in the kitchen where his gentle spouse found him this morning. She tenderly dressed his wounds, bathed his fevered brow, and tonight they will both go round to Charlie Schultz's and eat some ice cream and soda water which is certain to serve as a balm to their troubled spirits.

City Council.
The Common Council met last evening at the office of Recorder Osburn. Full Board present.

On motion it was ordered that the notice of sale of railroad bonds be further extended by the City Treasurer to November 1st, and that THE CITIZEN be authorized to print fifty copies of said notice for the use of the Treasurer.

Mayor Tuley then, in the presence of the Council, requested the Recorder to furnish copies of city bonds printed but not required for issue.

On motion it was ordered that City Marshal Brokaw be appointed a policeman of the city, to take effect September 25th.

On motion it was ordered that the Mayor instruct policemen that they can hold no other position.

Council then adjourned.

While wandering about the town last evening in search of some cosy nook, we stepped into Chas. Schultz's new ice cream parlor on Congress street, and were at once made happy. Mr. Schultz has his parlor newly papered, carpeted and draped, also tastefully decorated with pictures, etc. All these were very desirable and enjoyable of course, but our happiness was not complete until a glass of soda and cream followed by ice cream and cakes came to our rescue and filled an aching void. We forgot our struggles of the day with pen and paste and half imagined we were with Bennett on a voyage to the pole. The fact is, Schultz has a nice place and serves up the best kind of ice cream, cakes, soda water, etc., etc. The luxuries are not expensive, but highly enjoyable.

MR. PINK'S Opera Troupe is expected to arrive in Tucson next week. At least the actors will return with the excursion train from San Francisco. This morning the corporation took the measure for a new stage to be constructed in Levin's Park Ball. The same are also being painted.

Everything will be put in order for a first-class performance and our people can prepare themselves for a season of pleasant entertainment.

THE Tucson and Globe City wagon road Commissioners met last evening to appoint viewers to examine that portion of the road from Tucson to Old Camp Grant recently repaired by Mr. Geo. Cooper (Commissioner) and Mr. H. C. Ochoa (viewers) to make the examination.
They will start out this evening 11 to-morrow.

Friday's Daily.
GRAND opening of the fall season! Ball with lunch, at Levin's new ball on Wednesday, October 1st, 1879. Admission $2.00. Tickets for sale at the Pioneer News Depot and J. Goldtree's cigar store. Invitations will be considered as tickets, and must be presented at the door.

THERE is a real and look of moisture in the atmosphere, and we trust it will not all end in bluff for we need rain and need it very badly in every portion of the country. The ground is dry, the roads very dusty, the streams low, and there reve pay for rain.

MAJOR J. H. STREET returned yesterday from Florence and the Pima Agency, where he has been to transfer his charge to the new Agent, Mr. Ludlum. There seems to be nothing of startling importance in that direction.

HON. M. W. STEWART, of Camp Grant, returned by coach to-day from San Francisco, where he has been for more than three months for the treatment of his lung and feeling much better.

A TRAIN yesterday brought in seven new wagons — we mean new Rain wagons for the firm of Zeckendorf & Stahl, who are the sole agents.

MR. HINSON THOMAS returned last evening from the Patagonia district where he has some excellent property, his reports are most encouraging.

THE Pima County Bank will be closed to-morrow (Saturday) on account of Holy day.

To-morrow is the "Day of Atonement," a very important Jewish Holy day.

HON. G. H. OCHOA, of Florence, came up by coach to-day.

for November 2d.

The Chisholm Massacre.

The following, from the speech of Judge Morris in the trial of the Chisholm murderers at DeKalb, Miss., and the action of the jury in the premises are worthy of note. Judge Morris is recognized as one of the ablest lawyers, eloquent debaters and most successful politicians in the South. The murder of this family will ever stand on record as one of the most diabolical in design and cowardly in execution.
His speech commenced:

A Mississippian myself, native here and to the manner born, I repeat with all the intensity of my nature the imputation that the outrages perpetrated on the 29th of April were sympathized in by the good and law-abiding citizens of Kemper County.

He pictured the widow in her weeds, husbandless and childless; the beauty, bravery and devotedness of the grand little girl who thrust her innocent young life before the shotguns of the infuriated mob, that he who gave her being might remain a few more years among those he loved and protected. The cunning of the plot which succeeded in imprisoning Chisholm and his friends in jail upon the flimsy alibi of a man who lived in another county; the utter cowardice of the attack upon the jail, and the dastardly subterfuge of crying fire to get the devoted Chisholms to descend the stairs, were dwelt upon with thrilling power.

Link by link everything in the chain of the conspiracy of the Gullies was traced out — the intimidation of the negro George Folkes, the meeting at the grave of John W. Gully, the night assemblage at the gin house, the subterfuge to arrest Glimmer and shoot him down on the streets of DeKalb, the shutting up of Chisholm in the jail and the final slaughter of their helpless victims.

THE VERDICT.
After a speech of two hours, in conclusion of his able argument of the preceding day, Judge Morris concluded his case. After a retirement of thirty minutes the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, which was received without demonstration from the audience.

Florence Items.
FLORENCE, September 24, 1879.
EDITOR CITIZEN:—A few notes from this section might be of interest to the readers of THE CITIZEN, even though they are a little dry.

Business is not on a rush, nor are the streets crowded, but yet we live.
Several cases in the police courts have occupied our lawyers for a day or two and brought in some new faces from the "country."

The United States mint has not yet been established here, but we expect it will be soon all the same.

In the Land Office, Register Paulson is quite busy with applications for mining patent and notices of final proof to land claims.

I have rather a sad note to make concerning the physical condition of our old friend Phil. Kohlmeier. I fear the poor fellow is near his end. He has an abscess of the liver and is very seriously affected. Today he was put in a wagon fixed specially for him, and started for the railroad enroute to San Francisco, where he goes for medical treatment. Should the abscess break before his arrival in California, death will immediately ensue. He is certainly in a critical condition.

Major J. H. Stout and Mr. M. L.
Powers leave here to-day for Tucson.
Indian Inspector Hammond has doubtless taken his final departure. I understand he goes by way of Prescott and the Navajo Agency to Santa Fe.

Dr. S. B. Chapin and Judge Walker are out in the Owl Head mountains, where they have some excellent claims, both are good men and we hope both will soon be rich men.

When they commence the new iron bridge across the Gila I will write again. Very truly
SANTOS.

From the Prescott Arizona of the 15th: A gentleman connected with the Peak Mining company told us to-day, that leading works and supplies are arrived at Maricopa a few days ago, and that mine and mill are liable to be started almost any day.

A scarcity of water alone prevents the Brushlaw Basin, Turkey Creek and other prospects from being run.
The marriage of one of Arizona's energetic business men, John R. Dall, and Miss Frankie Meyers, was solemnized at the home of the Sisters, by the Rev. Father Becker, who performed the ceremony after the rites of the Catholic Church, at 7:30 o'clock last evening.

Clifton Placer Mines.
A mining correspondent to the Economist says the placer mines of Clifton, Arizona, are more properly the newly discovered gold region in the southern part of the county, are proving to be immensely rich, showing that besides being the best agricultural and grazing section of the Territory, her mineral resources are likely to prove equal to any other county in the Territory. Miners are flocking to the new placers and twenty-three claims were recorded in one day. Two men have a claim from which it is estimated that they are taking out at the least calculation, $1000 per week.

The Road to Globe.
Mr. Kelleher, contractor to construct the new road from Old Camp Grant to Globe City, came in Wednesday morning and reports he has surveyed the entire route and is ready for active operations in the way of construction.
He is purchasing steel, powder, tools, etc., and will take out with him an additional force of fifteen men. Mr.
Kelleher is an energetic worker, and thinks he will be able to take a buggy over the road in about six weeks.

It is known that seventeen persons were killed during the recent Indian raid near Silver City.

From Arizona, which is fast taking its place in the foremost ranks of the country, we have lately received a specimen of a mineral, rich in the precious metals and almost unique in its character. It is classed by experts as micaceous hematite containing iron-pyrite.

We had the curiosity to have the specimen handed to us assayed by Messrs. Fuller & Stillman, and the lead of silver from the ore weighed exactly 9,050 grammes, being equal to 240 ounces of silver per ton of ore, and at $1.19 per ounce, equivalent to $275 per ton of 2,000 pounds.

Anything more unlike a silver or gold bearing ore in appearance it is difficult to conceive. Greasy to the touch, when rubbed it leaves the fingers colored as if with lead, and sparkling from the multitude of minute particles of mica which is a component part. — [Chicago Mining Review.]

From the Herald we learn that Captain Bridwell (Beauford) with two companies of Indian scouts from Arizona passed north of Silver City and met Captain Meyers' command near Ojo Caliente on Thursday last. If Bridwell gets within striking distance of the renegades he will do more effective work than Hatch's whole command of "mokes."
